

Everyone Ready®

from Energize

...a volunteer management staff development plan for national organizations

Do you want:

... consistent, expert training and information for all staff and leadership volunteers who partner with volunteers daily throughout your network?

... everyone in your organization to have access to cost-effective, quality training on volunteer supervision, regardless of geographic location?

Join the other national organizations who have discovered Everyone Ready® -- the online volunteer management staff development training program expressly designed for national organizations. We also welcome inquiries from organizations that are not national but feel they are large enough or have a sufficient number of learners for Everyone Ready to be cost-effective. You decide if this service is right for you.

Comments from Participants

"This is an amazing and affordable opportunity. So glad that our national headquarters has provided this to all chapters who do not have the resources to send volunteers and staff to day-long classes."

"Easy to use, easy to understand, relevant. I especially appreciated the opportunity to see others' questions."

"We used the seminar for professional development and had a bag lunch, discussion for 90 minutes (10 of us together) -- great time, great info, really assisted our work -- we had real 'historians' in volunteering for over 25 years to real 'newbies'."

"This was as good as it gets without being in the physical presence of the trainer!"

"I am brand new to this field as well as my current organization and am grateful to have this resource to jumpstart my new position."

More about Everyone Ready[®]

- ▶ Well-known expertise - The project is directed by two leaders with proven records in the field: Susan J. Ellis and Betty B. Stallings. Trainers and authors include Steve McCurley, Linda Graff and other notable volunteer management experts.
 - ▶ A year-round calendar of online seminars and electronic training materials on basic and advanced volunteer management subjects which can be used individually or in groups. The content builds on the high-quality publications and presentations for which Energize is known, including our unequalled relationships with international trainers, authors, and consultants in the field.
 - ▶ Support, consultation, and practical tools to provide exceptional capacity building and increased volunteer involvement at every level of your organization.
 - ▶ It all begins on your Web site with a “Main Page” that links your members to the various components, driving traffic to your own site first. But there is minimal work for your IT department. Everyone Ready[®] lives on the Energize server and we handle technical support.
 - ▶ A three-year plan - You can enroll in the full three- year plan of monthly materials or join for one year with the option to renew annually.
- ▶ Your choice of three service levels (Basic, Enhanced, and Champion) that offer the following benefits and more:
 - Six (6) bi-monthly Online Training Seminars, combining Flash[®] media presentations, electronic handout packets, and a discussion board with the trainer responding to questions from learners. Available to anyone in your network, 24/7. Length of time for access to each seminar varies according to membership level, with Champion members having continuous year-round access.
 - Six (6) bi-monthly electronic Self-Instruction Guides of 20-25 pages in length, focused on specific volunteer management subjects that can be used individually or in groups. Enhanced and Champion members also receive an audio recording of each Guide that can be downloaded to a portable listening device.
 - Access to the international journal e-Volunteerism— and its complete searchable Archive of six years of past issues – for everyone in your system.
 - A discount on individual purchases of the 80+ items in the Energize Online Bookstore for everyone in your system.
