DVAVA PROFILE

DVAVA (Delaware Valley Association of Volunteer Administrators) is a professional organization developed by and for individuals who are responsible for leading volunteer programs. The current DVAVA membership represents the varied areas of volunteer management from a wide range of local organizations including the arts, cultural, educational, faith based, health and human services.

When you become a DVAVA member, you join a strong, innovative organization where you are privy to successful and up-to-date best practices in volunteer management. You will learn about the latest trends in volunteer management plus you will meet and network with your colleagues, collaborate with local agencies and enhance your professional resources.

DVAVA – The Volunteer Administrator’s Resource!

NETWORKING FOR YOU!

General Meetings are held four times a year (September, November, January and March) in convenient locations throughout the Delaware Valley.

During each meeting, expect to be motivated by an informative and practical presentation on relevant volunteer management issues. A brief membership session will give you a voice in DVAVA’s future.

Meeting Topics

- Volunteer Recruitment
- Personal Wellness
- Marketing your Program
- “Coming of Age” Initiative
- Volunteer Recognition
- Professional Development
- Your Ideas!!
