

CONTENTS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| PREFACE  | vii |
| INTRODUCTION: FOSTERING AND UPHOLDING YOUNG LEADERS        | 1   |
| BROADENING YOUR DEFINITION AND YOUR EFFORTS                | 3   |
| Key #1: The Asset Connection                                      | 5   |
| Key #2: Exploring the Assets Leaders Need                         | 10  |
| Key #3: Rethinking the Role of Youth Worker or Educator           | 17  |
| Key #4: Recognizing Many Different Types of Leadership            | 19  |
| Key #5: Recognizing Leadership as a Rite of Passage               | 22  |
| BUILDING THE FOUNDATION FOR SHARED POWER                   | 25  |
| Key #6: Connecting Leadership to Your Organization's Mission      | 27  |
| Key #7: Getting Support from Key Stakeholders                     | 28  |
| Key #8: Engaging Families   | 29  |
| Key #9: Helping Adults Learn the Benefits of Shared Leadership    | 30  |
| Key #10: Setting Goals  | 31  |
| Key #11: Assessing Current Opportunities and Looking for New Ones | 32  |
| PUTTING IDEAS INTO ACTION                                  | 35  |
| Key #12: Recruiting   | 37  |
| Key #13: Helping Adults and Youth Work Together                   | 39  |
| Key #14: Leading Successful Intergenerational Meetings            | 42  |
| Key #15: Building Trust between Youth and Adults                  | 45  |
| Key #16: Supporting Young People in Leadership Roles              | 47  |
| Key #17: Encouraging Youth to Be Leaders beyond Your Organization | 49  |
| Key #18: Affirming and Honoring Youth Who Lead                    | 51  |
| CONCLUSION   | 53  |
| RESOURCES  | 55  |