

Contents

Acknowledgments	9
Preface	11
Introduction	13
The Evolution of the Fabulous Fundraising Event	14
25 Reasons the Dynamite Dinner is Perfect	17
Section One:
The Essentials of Producing an Effective Fundraising Event	21
1. Fundraising Events: Setting the Stage for Success	23
Why Fundraising Events Get Off to a Bad Start	24
Developing Guiding Principles on Fundraising Events	25
Ensuring Success with Events Sponsored by Others on Your Behalf	28
Summary: Setting the Stage for Success	32
2. Choosing The Right Event	33
Criteria for Selecting Fundraising Events	34
Clear goals for staging a special event	34
Access to appropriate attendees, sponsors and underwriters	36
Types of events that meet your goals and reach targeted markets	37
Event appropriate to organization's goals and mission	42
Adequate staffing	43
Projected budget aligned with your goals	44
Clear expectations of the work for the event	45
Planning/oversight task force with appropriate representation	46
Adequate time to prepare for the event	46
Benefits of event worth the time and effort	46
Summary: Choosing the Right Event	47
3. Event Volunteers: From Selection to Recognition	49
Enhancing Volunteer Involvement in Fundraising Events	49
Clear and expanded job opportunities	50
Selection of event chair(s)	52
Recruitment and placement of event steering committee	55
Orientation and training of event volunteers	58
Organized management of volunteers on day of the event	60

Contents (Continued)

Recognition and appreciation of volunteers	61
Summary: Event Volunteers	65
4. Planning, Budgeting, and Publicizing Your Fundraising Event	67
Planning Your Fundraising Event	68
Event-planning software	68
Timelines for the event	68
Budgeting	69
Estimated working budget	69
Budget updates	69
Actual budget	70
Ending financial statement	70
Resource Acquisition Generated through Sponsors and Underwriters	70
Supporting underwriters	70
Ways individuals or businesses support your event	70
Recognition of your sponsors	71
Add-on revenue potential for events	72
Publicizing the Event	72
Public relations committee	72
Selling tickets	73
Invitations	73
Press and radio coverage	74
Flyers	75
Summary: Planning, Budgeting, and Publicizing your Event	75
5. Evaluating Your Fundraising Event	77
Why Do Evaluations?	78
When to Conduct an Evaluation	79
Methods to Gain Evaluation Information	79
Evaluation input gathered at the event	79
Evaluation from volunteers	79
Getting feedback from donors/underwriters/sponsors	81
Getting feedback from staff who work on events	82
Feedback from facility personnel	83
Feedback from attendees of event	83
Evaluation by leadership/steering committee and event chair(s)	83
Summary: Event Evaluations	85

How To Produce Fabulous Fundraising Events

Contents (Concluded)

Section Two:

The Complete How-to Guide for Staging a Dynamite Dinner	87
Introduction	89
Deciding to Sponsor the Event	93
Selecting Event Leadership	97
Completing Tasks in Preparation for the Event	99
Managing the Evening of the Event	121
Following Up After the Event	123
Continuing the Impact of this Event	125
Testimonials	127
Appendixes	131
Selected References	165
About the Authors	167