

CONTENTS

List of Figures, Tables, and Worksheets	v	Seek Support from Other Stakeholders	30
INTRODUCTION		Strategize for Long-Term Change	32
EXPLORING CONNECTIONS	1	CHAPTER 3
CHAPTER 1		MAKING SERVICE-LEARNING WORK	33
BUILDING ASSETS THROUGH		FOR ALL KIDS
SERVICE-LEARNING	6	Elementary-Age Children (Ages 6 to 9)	34
Service-Learning: Learning While Contributing	6	Younger Adolescents (Ages 10 to 15)	34
Developmental Assets: A Foundation for Healthy Development	7	Older Adolescents (Ages 16 to 18)	34
The Asset-Building Potential of Service-Learning	11	Young People with Disabilities	36
Service-Learning as a Strategy for Culture Change	13	Marginalized Young People	38
What Asset Building Offers Service-Learning	17	Families	39
Putting the Connections to Work	21	Intergenerational Groups	41
CHAPTER 2		Assessing the Servers' Readiness	42
CULTIVATING LEADERSHIP		Sorting Out the Possibilities	42
AND SUPPORT	22	CHAPTER 4
Identify a Champion/Coordinator	22	SETTING THE STAGE
Build a Core Leadership Group	23	FOR SERVICE-LEARNING	46
Shape a Vision Grounded in the Organization's Mission and Identity	26	Establishing Overall Goals for Your Efforts	47
Connect Service-Learning to Existing Programs and Activities	29	Identifying Available Resources and Opportunities	52
Gain Support from the Organization's Leadership	29	Building Relationships with Volunteer Organizations and Agencies	54
		Raising Funds to Support Your Efforts	54
		Managing Risk and Ensuring Safety	57

C O N T E N T S

Cultivating a Culture of Service	61	Coping Creatively with Changes at the Site	90
The Importance of Stage Design	62	Providing Supervision and Ensuring Safety	91
CHAPTER 5		Keeping Energy Levels High	92
PREPARATION: GETTING READY		Meeting Ongoing Training Needs	92
TO SERVE	63	Keeping Others Connected	93
Setting Boundaries and Expectations for a Project	63	Documenting Experiences and
Narrowing the Service Options	65	Preparing for Reflection	93
Tapping Young People's Gifts and Interests	65
Equipping Youth for the Service-Learning Process	68	CHAPTER 7
Assessing the Current Situation	69	REFLECTION: MINING
Identifying Possible Service Projects	70	MEANING FROM EXPERIENCE	97
Evaluating the Possibilities	73	Linking Reflection with Learning Goals	97
Planning the Project	73	When to Reflect	98
Getting Ready to Serve	77	Whom to Involve in Reflection	99
Getting Ready to Learn	78	Ways to Reflect	99
Getting Ready to Grow	81	Effective Group Reflection	101
Preparing Adult Allies and Leaders	82	A Process for Reflection	102
Preparing Parents	83	CHAPTER 8
Moving Ahead When the Time Is Right	83	RECOGNITION: REINFORCING
		THE COMMITMENT	120
CHAPTER 6		Affirming and Celebrating What Was Done	120
ACTION: MAKING A DIFFERENCE	85	Sharing Learnings and Commitments
Cultivating an Asset-Rich Experience		as a Catalyst for Community Growth	121
for Young People	85	Personally Integrating Learnings and
Establishing Clear Assignments, Expectations,		Commitments	122
and Schedules	86	Renewing the Service-Learning Cycle	124
Keeping a Focus on the Learning and
Development Goals	89	POSTSCRIPT: NURTURING
Supporting Young People as They Serve	89	A GENEROUS GENERATION	125
Promoting Interpersonal and Cultural Sharing	90	Notes	127
		Additional Service-Learning Resources	131