Contents

Acknowledgements vi
Foreword x

1 Introduction 1
What is a Volunteer? 3
What is Volunteer Engagement? 4
What is Otherliness? 6
Why Head, Heart and Hands? 8

2 Revealing the Heart of a Volunteer 10
Why Do People Choose to Volunteer? 11
Somewhere Between Altruism and Selfishness 14
Why Else Do People Choose to Volunteer? 19

3 Developing the Head and Hands of a Leader 28
The Difference in Engaging Volunteers 29
The Difference Between Volunteer Management and Volunteer Leadership 33
The Importance of Organizational Vision, Mission, Values and Competencies 35
Spotlight: Stengel Family Endowment for Excellence in Alumni Volunteer Leadership, Pennsylvania State University 39
The Chain of Volunteer Service 43
Otherliness and the Leader of Volunteers 46

4 Engaging the Passion of a Volunteer 47
Rethinking Volunteer Recruitment 48
Discovering Individual Intrinsic Motivators 53
How Much Time to Invest in Discovery: The Time and Talent Matrix 56
When to Invest in Discovery 59
The Guide for Engaging Volunteers 61
Connecting Volunteers with Right Fit Roles 67

Spotlight: Jodi Fisher and IMPACT Virtual Services, LLC 69
5 Sustaining the Passion of a Volunteer
Rethinking Volunteer Motivation 74
Sustaining Your Own Engagement 76
Prepare: Equipping a Volunteer to Serve 80
Share: Guiding a Volunteer Along Their Journey 92
Be There: Supporting a Volunteer with Everyday Leadership Practices 98
Rethinking Feedback 106
Coaching and Mentoring 115
Removing Barriers to Service 122
Spotlight: Andrew Stanley and VolunteerMark 127
Care: Inspiring the Heart of a Volunteer 129
Rethinking Volunteer Recognition 131
Spotlight: Blaine Ung and txtMovies 138

6 Redirecting the Passion of a Volunteer 140
Rethinking Volunteer Termination 141
When to Consider Redirecting the Passion of a Volunteer 143
The Importance of Coaching 145
Becoming a Volunteer Performance Analyst 150
The Don’t Know Factor, and What To Do 153
The Can’t Do Factor, and What To Do 156
The Don’t Care Factor, and What to Do 161
Parting Ways With a Volunteer 168
Why Otherliness Matters: Where Grace, Peace, Forgiveness and Acceptance Fit in Volunteer Service 174

7 Next Steps for Leaders of Volunteers 177
Afterword 179
About the Author 183
About Head, Heart and Hands Engagement Collective 184